

Do not change or eliminate the long standing rules on Broadcast ownership. Broadcating rights are the property of the American prople. Competition and access to markets should not be eliminated or reduced by lifting these rules.